

LA ROCHE-SUR-YON INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

THE LATEST IN CONTEMPORARY CINEMA WITH PREVIEWS AND FRENCH PREMIERES

The La Roche-sur-Yon International Film Festival brings you a rich diversity of genres and formats with the latest in French premieres and previews. Focusing on the best of contemporary cinema and on discovering new forms, the Festival showcases a broad panoply of cinematographic practices, with its International and Nouvelles Vagues competitions, and the Perspectives, Variété, Special Screenings and Young Audience sections.

MEET SOME OF CINEMA'S KEY FIGURES

The Festival welcomes many key figures of contemporary cinema from across the world. Available and enthusiastic, the guests discuss with the public and share their journeys, stories and films in exchanges, master classes and brand-new events.

AN ATMOSPHERE OF CONSTANT DISCOVERY

The Festival offers a wealth of eclectic filmmaking proposals, guests and spectators from all horizons. After the screenings, cinephiles and the curious meet for discussions at the Festival bar or continue their experience in the contemporary art space, while younger spectators get a taste for cinema at the cine-breakfasts...

The Festival's eclecticism reaches as far as the Quai M hall, where concerts prolong the screenings in an explosion of music and sound. A mix of prolific artistic creations that makes La Roche-sur-Yon an epicentre of discovery, open to all.
